

LECTURE

Title

Defining and measuring energy-access and energy-poverty

Expert

Dr Shonali Pachauri

Abstract

In this lecture Pachauri addresses the concepts of absolute and relative energy poverty, she explains how the problem can also affect developed countries and clarifies the difference between access to electricity and access to fuels. Moreover, she highlights the dynamics of energy access in the different regions of the world since the 90s.